ORIGINAL

This is the current layout of Tinder upon opening the app.

BIO

The proportion of the photo was changed so that the bio is equally displayed.

DISMISS PROFILE BUTTON

The two red arrows signal "dismiss" so that the user can skip a profile, rather than reject it with the "X" button.

RECOMMENDATIONS

RECOMMENDATION #1

Utilize lower-half of layout to include Bio with Photo

- Reduce dependence on physical attributes
- Provide more information for potential romantic partners to make decisions

RECOMMENDATION #2

Let the “Reject” button remain as is

- “Dismiss” button has no significant preference advantage to justify change
- User confusion & misinterpretation

RECOMMENDATION #3

Verified Mark next to profile

- Help users reduce anxieties around safety & privacy
- Provide more comfort and confidence in romantic dating pool

04

LIMITATIONS

LIMITATION #1

Limited Scope of Analysis

- Focus on UI recommendations may overlook other important factors.
- May not adequately address the broader context and potential confounding variables.

LIMITATION #2

Convenience Sampling

- Could add bias into the findings, or skew the results.
- Sample may be unrepresentative of the population

LIMITATION #3

Limited Sample Size

- Limits the ability to reliably identify important effects or associations
- Statistical Power may be impacted.
